

ERRATUM

REMANE R. & GÜNTHER H. 2008: Acetropis stysi, a new species from Spain (Hemiptera: Heteroptera: Miridae). Acta Entomologica Musei Nationalis Pragae 48(2): 389–394.

P. 390, paragraph 5, row 1 should read as: Parameres as in Fig. 4b (instead of Fig. 4c).

In captions to Fig. 3 (p. 392) and Fig. 4 (p. 393), incorrect species were attributed to the figures. Both figures with correct captions are reprinted here:

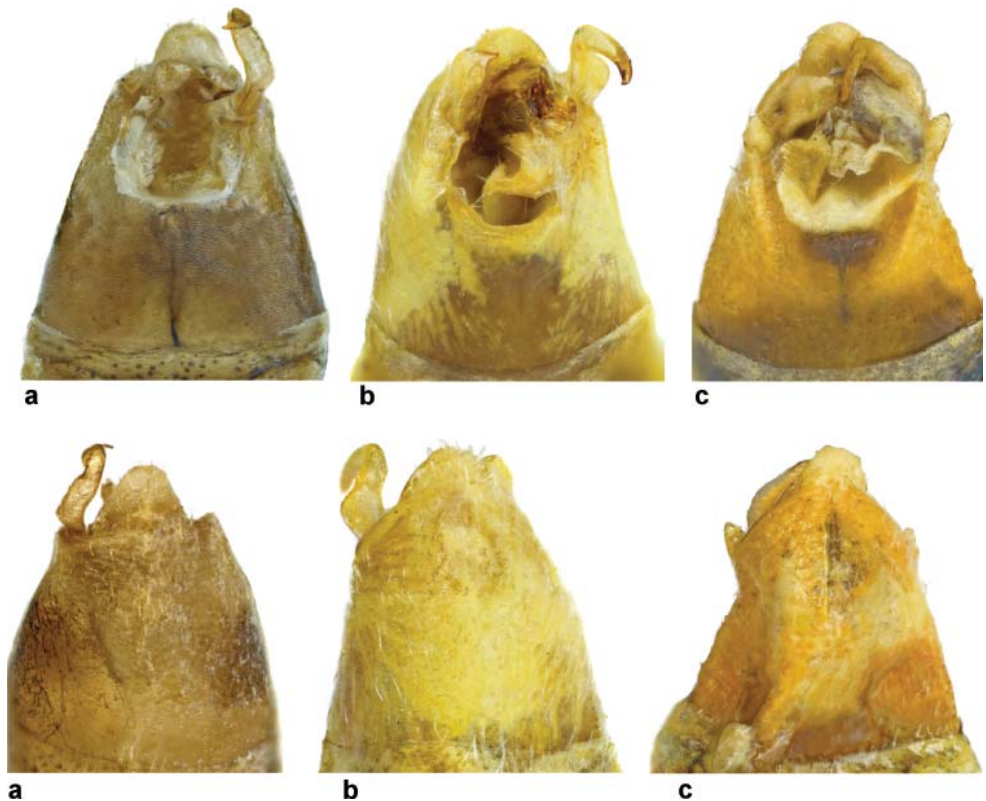

Fig. 3. Pygophore margins in dorsal (top row) and ventral view (bottom row): a – Acetropis carinata (Herrich-Schaeffer, 1841), b – A. stysi sp. nov., c – A. longirostris Puton, 1875.

Fig. 4: Parameres (bottom row) and vesical spiculae (top row): a – Acetropis carinata (Herrich-Schaeffer, 1841), b – A. stysi sp. nov., c – A. longirostris Puton, 1875.
